FLORIDA OCTAGON

#155

January 2016

Dearest Club Members:

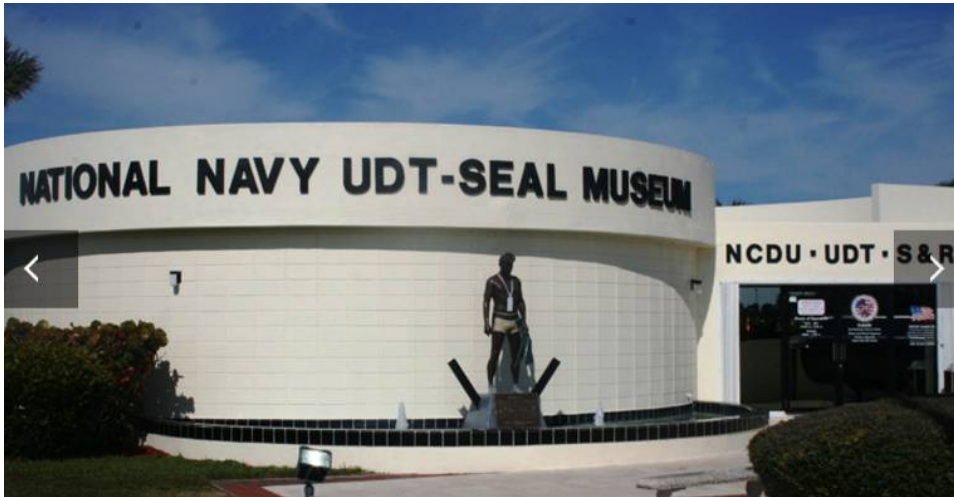

Happiest of New Year wishes to each of you. Hoping this finds all of you well rested and feeling good and ready to start the New Year with some great driving events!

Want to Thank John & Diane Perez for hosting such a wonderful holiday party. They graciously opened their home to us, and I feel we all that attended had a lovely time together. Want to thank those that came from afar in celebrating with the club; I know some of you came a great distance, Thank you!

This Month's event we will be going down to the Navy Seal Museum in Ft. Pierce. We will meet at Starbucks in Indialantic at 8:30-9:00am, with a prompt departure at 9:00am for the 45 mile drive south on A1A. The Vero group will meet us, just south of Vero Beach, on A1A at Round Island Park. So mark your calendars for

January 16.

Maybe we can get a nice group & cars picture there before we take off down south.

February will be another down south event. February 13 McKee Gardens is hosting an "Extinct Motorcars Exhibit" throughout the gardens. It was a lovely event last year in which a few of our members were invited to show their cars. Norm Ridgely is a member of the Exhibit Committee, further details to come.

A board meeting is planned for January 11, your ideas and faces are welcome. Any idea you want to share or involvement you would like to be in, please let us know. All are invited. We still need a Secretary and Webmaster.

Membership dues are due. We did a great job collecting some at the Holiday Party. Nothing like mixing business with pleasures. Please join us again this coming year, $15.00 can be sent to- MGCCF, PO Box 410471, Melbourne, FL 32926

Happiest of Birthday's too:

Ali Purdy, New Years Day baby!

Mark Raupp January 22

Melanie Keuper January 31

January was a slow month for birthdays and Anniversaries because as my records show that's all I have listed! Let's not forget though everyday is your birthday and celebrate like it's your last.

So my dearest friends, wishing each of you a most Happy New Year, we will hit bumps in the road, but we have each other to make things better. So let's share ideas and whatever else we need to share for we are all in this together.

See you all January 16th.

Safety Fast,

Your President, Linda
